The Anti-Slavery Bugle.

BENJAMIN S. JONES, EDITOR.

"NO UNION WITH SLAVEHOLDERS."

ANN PEARSON, PUBLISHING AGENT.

VOL. 16,---NO. 21.

SALEM, COLUMBIANA COUNTY, OHIO, SATURDAY, JANUARY 5, 1861.

THE ANTI-SLAVERY BUGLE,

PUBLISHED EVERY SATURDAY AT SALEM, OHIO: In his speech in Boston on the 3rd of December, By the Executive Committee, of the Western Anti- in replying to the question "How can American

TERMS .- $1.50 per annum payable in advance. he addressed to BENJAMIN S. JONES, Editor.

sed to Ann Peasson. Publishing Agent, Salem, has in addition a good captock musket with sword Columbiana County, Ohio.

Above, may be sent by mail at our risk. are not subscribers, but who are believed to be by day and by night, in public and private, at has submitted to our inspection the following gem interested in the dissemination of Anti-Slavery home or abroad, keep those arms on or about his of poesie. Our excited friend, the Charleston Mer-

TERMS OF ADVERTISING. One year. One Fourth Column one year, with privilege of changing monthly, - - - -Half Column, changing mouthly, - -

Cards not exceeding eight lines will be inserted one year for $300; six months, $200. Advertisements for patent medicines, specific remedies, chance to make money, &c., neither by the money he now spends for ardent spirits, solicited nor published. J. HUDSON, PRINTER.

The Anti-Slavery Bugle.

A GREAT SPEECH.

has spoken, with the eloquence of judisputable infringed." of Anny Johnson."

vertable logic.

DISUNION IS ABOLITION.

ed dissolution, and it is time to speak out. The -but, at any bazzard or risk let him be captured. preservation of the institution of slavery, whether and receive at the hands of some fugitive slave, and wanted to accomplish the overthrow and aboli- action of his disturbed epidermis, let him be wash tion of the institution of slavery in the Southern ed down with a strong solution of salt and water. break the bonds of this Union, and dissolve this restrain his canine instincts, then let him be furcompliance with all the guarantees of the Constitu- other side of Jordan." tion. I believe an interference with it will break Sir, it is high time that the freemen of the up the Union; and I believe a dissolution of the North (if we have a North) should cease their Union will, in the and, though it may be some time to come, overthrow the institution of slavery, quibbles, where the issues to a fellow man of lib-Hence we find so many in the North who desire orty-when unforfeited by crime-of liberty dear- Of any Southern gentleman whose grandfather the dissolution of the union of these States as er to every man than life, to him and his posterity the most certain and direct and effectual means are involved. of overthrowing the institution of slavery.

TAKE NOTICE.

President elect assured him:

"You will find that the only difference between the sorrowing gaze of the civilized world. you and me is, that I think slavery wrong, and you think it right; that I am opposed to its extenbion, while you advocate it; and that as to the setence, you will find it as great under my adminis- dence in the circumstances around us. tration as it ever was under that of Mr. Buchanan."

A TIMELY SOUTHERN CAUTION.

Lincoln's election is a triumph of abolition. The souls of their fellow-men, It is from the Panola (Miss.) Star, of Dec. 13:

tion. We do not recommend it, but suggest for spirit has departed, these, gave to slavery an adthe consideration of the better judgment of our vantage there, which she has lost forever. fellow-citizens, whether it would not be best to question cannot in any way, free them. "We would be glad to hear an expression of

"If something of this kind is not done, and also a strong check kept upon them, we must have trouble with our negroes soon. It is impossible for them to remain passive while we have so much excitement around them every day," heavy Produce Commission House in N. Y. City, The South, boiling like a cauldron, as yet, has which has evidently met with some losses at the thrown to the surface no man competent for the by the each, for 500 barrels of flour. They replied man of much ability in that land-without any in the following very pointed and proface manner: "Est your Cotton, damn you."

The Charleston Mercury publishes its Congressional news under the head-

FOREIGN NEWS.

DOINGS IN THE FEDERAL CONGRESS.

JOHN BROWN JR.

Slavery be abolished?" said .

The first work which I propose to accomplish is. **Communications intended for insertion, to to thoroughly organize and arm our free colored My father did -I do, yet the system which thus population. A man may be said to be thoroughly blights every thing it touches, shall never be for-Orders for the paper and letters containing armed, when he possesses in his own right, a Bow-money in payment for the same, should be addres-lekalfe and Colts navy revolver for side-arms, and bayonet. His revolver and musket should be kent . Money carefully enveloped and directed as in such order as to never miss fire. It may be added, that the knife and bayonet are not liable to We ascasionally send numbers to those who such a mortifying failure. He should at all times the versifier of the "fine Old English Gentleman," themselves or use their influence to extend its on them in the dark as well as in the light. He unce for the poet's extreme youth and frightful inshould also keep on hand in good condition, a fall experience. Of course, it is only a fancy picture: sorply of ammunities for his revolver, and at THE SOUTH CAROLINA GENTLEMAN. One Square, '16 lines) three weeks, - - $1 00 least sixty rounds of back-shot cartridges for his Down in the small Palmetto State the curious ones musket. In this particular, he should profit by the lessons which slavery has taught; viz, that A ripping, tearing gentleman, of an uncommon 6.00 three-fourths of all the men who fell victims to the Twe Squares six months, - - 5.00 slave power in Kansas were killed by back shot A staggering, swaggering sort of chap, who takes 8 00 fired from muskets and fowling pieces. He should also not fail to remember to reserve his five until And frequently condemns his eyes to that ultimate be is close upon his enemy, even though this 20,00 should require a meeting at the cannon's mouth.

Perhaps it may be asked, how are such arms to be obtained, by the colored men? Besides other modes which are obvious, let him for one year lay You trace his genealogy, and not far back you'll ly well disposed to a Southern Confederacy. We tobacco, tea and coffee and other debilitating luxuries, and he will have the means for purchasing these arms, and yet have enough left, to furnish his wife and daughters with "Smith and Wesson's seven shooter." If the law of the state in which he resides, forbids his wearing concealed weapons then let him wear them openly : if this is prohib ited then let him resist to the death such an un Senator Johnson of Tennessee has been making constitutional infringement of his rights. The what Republicans and other Unionists call "A Federal Constitution as well as the constitutions great speech." The Cincinnati Commercial says, of the states expressly declares that "The rights of the states expressly declares that "The rights facts and incontrovertible logic, through the lips Such a state of preparation actually existing, I would recommend by way of wholesome prelimin-We have only room to give the following extract, any exercises, that the first biped bound who shall and which we trust will be universally received as attempt to act the part of kidnapper, or, who shall the eloquence of indisputable facts and incontro- attempt, with or without precept, to lay his sacriligious bands upon any man, woman or child, for the purpose of returning him or her to bondage, There are many ideas afloat about this threaten- be taken. I say let him be taken-alive if possible question arises in reference to the protection and Then let him be divested of his outward apparel dissolution is a remedy or will give to it protection seventy-eight lashes well laid on his naked back. If there is not a box of sand behind the nearest I avow here, to day, that if I were an Abolitionist, After this process in order to facilitate the healthy States, the first step that I would take would be to Should this treatment be insufficient to properly Government. I believe the continuance of slavery nished with a through ticket, which shall guarandepends upon the preservation of this Union, and a tee a quick passage by the air line route to "the

Sir, such a personal liberty law would be repealable only, when the blood of the Pilgrim Fath- That such damned nonsense never troubles the ers shall have coased to electrify the hearts of Lincoln has been visited by a fire-eater and his their degenerate posterity-when the spirit of blue cockade, and at the close of the interview the 1776, with averted face shall have walked backward and hidden our imbecility and shame from

The necessary result of the vigorous working of this plan would be, so far as slavery is concerned, to practically carry the Canada line down to Macurity of the institution and the protection of slave son and Dixon's. When this is accomplished we property in the States where it has a lawful exis- may then properly wait for the leadings of Provi-

When the real slaveholders are made to see that the system is unprofitable-when their own flesh and blood in the persons of their "home-made" It has been indignantly denied by some, that slaves shall fall seventy-five per cent in the marthe slaves at the South are deluded by what they ket, then will "the capital states" seek other inhave heard from the whites into the belief that vestment for their capital than in the bodies and following will show how well grounded is the fear. Kansas received upon her head the "vials of slaveholding wrath, because, there for a time, they "We wish to suggest the propriety of all slave could be poured out with comparative impunity. owners taking some pains to correct a very false There through the aid of those Kausas "crushing impression now prevailing among the negroes mills, the judiciary and the army, and more than about the election of Lincoln. It is generally all else, aided by that respect for "Law and Order" believed by our slaves that they were to be free if inherent, and inbred in the Northern man's Con- If for amusement he's inclined, he coully looks Lincoln was elected, or at least, they think some stitution-a respect which leads him to pertinahow or other they are to be benefitted by his elec-tell them that the election of Lincoln had nothing child, or when it finds a Yankee who shivers at Then calls his numerous family to enjoy with him in the world to do with them or their freedom, the eight of a Bowie-knife. Under other circumbut has reference to the question of making new stances its courage is by no means a striking slave States; that nothing has been done to change quality. The British Lion steps between the montheir condition, by Mr. Lincoln or anybody else, ster, and forty thousand of his escaped victims in and that all the talk they hear about the slavery Canada and he bows before the majesty of "Law and Order." Meet slavery then upon his own terms of force opinion on the subject, and have made this sugges- and he quietly changes front. Here is his vul- He takes to suchre kindly, too, and plays an awful nerable point-the "joint in the harness" of his fancied security. Mr. President, -slavery in America is a doomed institution. Upon its walls as with a pen of And if he wins, why then he stoops to pocket all safe. But A lass! we was fire, are traced by the hand of "destiny" "mene, mene, tekel upharsin." The wrongs of this eys- But if he loses, then he says unto the unfortunate tem have gone up before the throne of Infinite Jus-A VERY EMPHATIC AND LACONIC ANSWER .- A tice-and God's order of arrest has been issued .-South, recently received an order unaccompanied exigencies of the hour. Ex-Gov. Wise, the only "trust in God" is vainly trying to "keep his powder dry" sadly forgeting that upon every page of history, burns the undying truth, that when men Of course, he's all the time in debt to those who bal's election ! "despise justice and frame iniquity into law," they fail to put their trust in God, and he always Yet manages upon the best the market yields to then gives Satan a special commission to wet their

To Gov. Wiss was offered the one opportunity unmixed atheism. That opportunity was gone on the 2d of December, 1859, when at the city of Charlestown, Va., he publicly murdered his best riend. Then indeed, did "the great bell of time toll out another hour." May God forgive him!

From the N. Y. Sunday Mercury.

THE EAGLE'S LAST SCREAM. A gentleman who is in no way related to truth, with the hope that they will either subscribe person, and where he can instantly lay his hand cury, must take it mildly, and make all due allow- And soltly murmurs through his teeth: "I die un- sway the destinations of these surrin states?"

his whisky straight, vengeance which a clergyman of high stand-A South Carolina gentleman,

One of the present time.

And if you note the shaggy locks that cluster on foreign countries would be friendly or unfriendly

This South Carolina gentleman, One of the present time.

his ruffles jut. fingers shine in Chatham street for jewels gen-u-ine-The South Carolina gentleman,

He chews tobacco by the pound, and spits upon

One of the present time.

and when he takes his weekly mighty track

cious apple jack-

This South Carolina gentleman, One of the present time.

child's play of legal technicalities and unmanly He looks on grammar as a thing beneath the notice quite was white: And as for education-why, he'll plainly set it heads of the Chivalry; though it may be sufficiently degrading to merit the personal attention of the poor wretches unfortunate enough to make their living at the North-

This South Carolina gentleman, One of the present time.

He licks his niggers daily, like a true American; cessful. ious plan:

He tries his bowie-knives upon the fattest he can find:

And if the darky winces,-he is immediately arrested at the instance of the First Families in the neighborhood, on a charge of conversing with a fiendish abolitionist, and conspiring to poison all the wells in the State with strychnine, and arm the slaves of the adjoining plantations with knives and pistols; for all of hundred lashes-after which, to prison he's consigned(by)

This South Carolina gentleman, One of the present time.

about

ler lout; And having found him, has him hung from some ni-ty-This South Carolina gentleman, One of the present time.

Especially when those he tricks his style don't understand:

stranger, who has chanced to win: " It's my opinion that you are a cursed abolitionist;

offer to pay his loss he makes, This South Carolina gentleman, One of the present time.

credit give-

But if a Northern creditor asks him his bill to heed.

aggressions of the North, and its gross viola- responsibility. tions of the Constitution, be feels that it "Feller citizens. We've been an talked of cri-determined to Secret-The South Carolina gentleman One of the present time.

world he goes,

that somewhere on the other side of Jordon I quarter parts make a hull ?" may just come scross some ab o-li-tion-istell .. The cheer decided the question sout of order,

This South Carolina gentleman, One of the present time.

From Forney's Press. BRAZIL AND NEGRO EQUALITY.

A correspondent, whose letter we published a England and France maintained harmonious relatrust the contingency may never arise in which You'll find that every other bair is varied with a Republic; but there are strong reasons why Engture with a race not particularly popular now; ian Government than any one likely to be formed hoped everybody would free their minds," in the southern part of the United States,

Of the total population of Brazil, which now mixture of mulattoes, mestizoes, and blacks, slave no idee of gettin up. hardly pass muster with the Original Jacobs to the whites. In the army or navy, in commerce, go dawn to onborn footoority?

negro government. Great Britain, therefore, and France, might men, I dont know what them rights is, but my is fully armed and ready for war, the North is dewith perfect propriety maintain friendly relations praoud motter is naow an ever, 54-40 or fite! poses to establish, if the small pox does not drive the common sense of this meetin." several other contingencies which are much more Marcellus hymn-altered for the occasion. probable do not occur. Of course, none of the statesmen of the South would be willing to imitate Brazil in the customs and regulations we have referred to, if the secession project should be suc-

[As they have neither telegraph nor railroad at tion bigs roosters, an tom-cats. Hornby, due allowance must be made for the The committee on resolutions offered the follow- ero hot-heads to take possession of Washington slowness with which news travels from that im- ing:

portant place.] From the Portland (Me.) Transcript. HORNBY SECEDES!!

LETTER FROM ETHAN SPIKE.

HORNEY, Nov. 19, 1860. which he is very properly sentenced to five From the airy concupisence of the purple zenith, the sun hes gone daown to the oriental chambers for the last time? One bright an very pertickerler star is sot or abaout to set,

Its no use tryin to disguise it-heartless Black Republicans may deride and larf. So Zero fiddled proceed to stultify itself accordin to statoote made fend ourselves and sustain the government of Linwhen the confiamation was burnin Rome-larfiu an provided. won't squinch the fires.

Hornby is alread nullified, an, onless suthin is done pretty quick, she'll see seed!

"suspected abolitionist" receiving his just re- instincts, am doin my best to hold on the pieces, anx on a war footin. time compared to mine.

Up to last tousday we thought everything was an one star in the center,

-'mistaking souls, Wot drempt of heaven,' on or an Ethiopian nigger changin his spots, which this meetin is suitably grateful.

Of course a taown meetin was the fust thing in order arter we got over the fust shock. Cap'n Perterbation Pillebury on takin the cheer journ-wich it did."

"Feller Stinens. Fust an last it has bin my lot is onnecessary, of genius, but he had no faith, for his system is This honorable gentleman instantly draws bowie. to preside over several or more meetins but never knives and a pistol, done a blue cookade, and before her I approximated the discharge of manideclares that in consequence of the repeated fest duty with such a tumultoous feelin of awful would utterly degrade him to pay any debt sises afore, but put all the crisises that ever was the remainder an carry for every ten, bile an steep And when at length, to Charleston of the other say with the clarace-it are-"Hoc some bonem knee plus horribus pue ses cundun arter em." He leaves his children mortgages, with all their "Feller citizens. It ar my painful duty to announce to you that Abram Hannibal-a quodocter-As slowly fades the vital spark, he doubles up his genarian, an Illinoy nigger, with eight quarter der a full conviction of my errors in life, and At this pint Jim Peabody ris for information freely forgive all men; but still I only hope Ho "would respectfully ax the cheer how many > meeting, which, arter a hard tussle, was done, an the Cap'n continered,

"Feller citizens"-says the Cap'n says he, violation of aour constituotional rights, or-" ing has assured us must be the sinner's fate; few days since, pointed exultingly to the fact that Here another Black Republican wanted to know what constituotional right hed bin violated ! "The Cheerman, to have you pint-" Afore he could finish, his hat was promptly and that he had taken her to a barber and had her A most undoubted octoroon, or maybap a mustec; the question may be practically tested whether knocked over his eyes, an he was cared into the entry to cool his heels with Jim Peabody. to a secoding nation carved off from the existing the feller aout' for cour promptness in maintainin kink, that seldom denotes pure Caucasian land, with her peculiar anti-slavery notions, the right of speech, and said he "would take this blood; but on the contrary, betrays at admix- should regard with much greater favor the Brazil- occasion to say-that this war a free meetin, an

There want only one other 'black' in the haouse au when the cheer said this, he half ris, but I gin

With waistcoat of the loudest style, through which and free. No distinction of color whatever exists in "To resume" said the cheer. "Shall we give in that country, and in the language of a recently squinzle, kerflomox and back daown, or shall we Six breastpins deck his bosom front; and on his published encyclopedia, its laws "render manu. rise in the vartooous indignation of insulted majesmission easy, and, once emancipated, the negro ty an daown trodden what do ye call it, raise hail ner it is not known, the border ruffian escaped Whole invoices of diamond rings, which would finds every calling and office as fully open to him as Kerlumby, an tharby ret an example which will agriculture, or manufactures, in social or political that flanckshanary myself—Feller citizens—I results in this, that the danger of insurrection does baint got no great of a voice, owin to bein choked not exist. The humblest slave looks forward with when young with a tough doughnut; but sich as hope not only to future freedom, but to wealth and it ar, it ar for wat! Sir-leastwise gentlemen of power." We learn, too, that some of the most ex. the jury-or more properly speakin feller citizens the North to arm themselves, saying :

"I will naow appint Permission Penbody a com- The military spirit, besides, has not been active with Brazil, when they would be unwilling to recognize such a confederacy as South Carolina promittee of the hull to draft resolutions expressive of for some years past, and the number of volunteer

While the committee was nout making the sense arms in the hands of the volunteer soldiers, there-

"Sons of Hornby,

Wake to glory-"Old Dan Tucker" an "The frog he would a sane mind an lawful age, do dopose an say-1st. Resolved: That all men is created free an equal-exceptin them that is'nt, 2d. Resolved: That the election of Abram Hanibal is a direct insult to Hornby, and ortent to be put up with, so it ortent.

flingin its knockturnal rays on sour glorious Union shall take back everything he has said agin the It is as a precautionary measure; simply, that peace an dignity of this suvrin moonicipality-or arming is necessary. An ounce of prevention is if he hes'nt said nothin, he dus not faithfully pro- worth a pound of cure. Let us take no steps tomise not to do it again, then this moonicipality will ward resistance; but let us be in a position to de-

4th. Resolved: That we her the right, an will should that be necessary, sec-seed-forcibly of we can, peaceably of we

5th. Resolved: That the Selick men be empow-I haint time to write all the perticklers. I've ered to borry on the credit of the taoun, of they the instructive and entertaining spectacle of a ollers bin a Union-saver, and true to my perlitical can, the sum of $24,19, to put the Hornby Phai-tootes of the constituotion was consequentially much human critters may lasf an jest, we is grat- cine. She had secured a lucrative practice and ified to know that pater is more seriouser, an is was pleasantly situated, when she was waited upon makin demonstrations suitable to the sollum a few days ago, by a Committee, who charged her ewent. The airthquake of Oct. 19, was a leetle with her former connection with the Agitator .when in reality we stood on the slippery rocks ahead of time to be sure, but on the hull credita. This she did not deny. They then warned her to with nothin to catch holt on, an billers underneath. ble. Thar ar spots on the sun, an since the 6th of leave the State in twenty-four hours, basing their and if you don't leave South Carolina in one A streak of chain lightnin aout of blue sky-a November it rises later and later, at the same time action upon an article upon John Brown which had hour, you will be hung like a dog." But no thunderbowl when it want at all expected, new settin airlier an airlier. The moon also is gibtetters in Jincoary, a cattamount without no har cous, an some think its got the phases, for all of bad left; however,) which a New Orleans paper couldn't hey knocked us forder into the latter send 8th. Resolved: That moust of this distressin but was informed that they could offer her no of next week, than the news of Abraham Hanis sitoontion is owin to Portland. Tharfore Resolved safety. Being thus situated, she could do no less land folks hold agin us.

9th. Resolved: That this meeting do naow ad-All the above is facts, I make no comments—it istence is legalized, and lubricating its wheels somecessary.

ETHAN SPIKE, with the blood of its victims.—Herald.

PAINTING A WHITE GIRL TO MAKE HBR A SLAVE.

WHOLE NO. 795.

One day last week a gentleman of this city hailed an up country boat, the Cora Anderson, as whatever; and that in fact, he has at last since crisises was inwented, together, multiply em she was passing, Greenville, Miss., whither he by all the figgers in the multiplication table, add had gone on business, to return home. Shortly at ter being under way, our Natches friend observed from july to ctarnity, an this ere that we've met to a pensive-looking little girl, aged about 9 or 10 consider is more crisinet than the hull. I may years, whose black hair and yellowish brown skin would indicate that she was a mulattress. There was something shout her that interested him, and he inquired of the captain concerning her. He was informed that she was a slave belonging to a man on board, whom the captain pointed out, who parts merlatter blood into him, has been elected to said he was taking her to New Orleans to sell her, he having bought her for $160 in Northwestern Missouri, on the borders. Our Natchez friend eyed the little girl and the border man so closely as to attract the attention of the latter, with whom he was soon engaged in conversation concerning and directed that Jim should be cared nout of the thie child, interrogating him in such a manner as to elicit answers not always agreeing with previous statements, and evidently alarming him. This was suspicious. The little girl was taken aside "What is to be did! Shall we put up with this had been taken from an asylum in New York by this man; that her hair was light and her complexion brunette; that this man told her he was tions with the slaveholding Government of Brazil, people," says he, "hev only exercised their onalas positive proof that these nations would be equal enable legal frankincense, an I should like, Mr. ter, she would have a good home; that black hair was preferred in the South, and prettier than here, hair dyed black. He also told her that if she would allow him to put some yellow dye on her skin that her complexion would become much whiter in a few days, and that he had put the stain on. On hearing these statements, the child was taken in charge by the captain, and potash, soap and water being applied, the dyes were taken off, and the light hair and light complexion brought to light. The pretended master was seized by the excited in a state-room until the boat should land. In the meantime the boat had passed St. Joseph, and when a few miles below that town rounded to to from the boat, leaving his baggage behind. The girl was taken by the captain of the boat to New Orleans and placed in one of the asylums of that

ARMING:

The Pittsburgh Gazette calls upon the people of tensive slaveholders, and men of the first rank in -I love the Union-I do by hokey! But, "Hic Look at the facts. The Northern Arsenals be-Brazil, are negroes and mulatoes. When Gov. san jacket," I love Hornby more. 1 love to con. longing to the United States have been denuded he clears a Wise, of Virginia, was the American minister template the spar stangled banner underlatin its within the last three months; every available arm there, during Tyler's Administration, he found brazen folds amid the stary amplitudes of onmittie within them having been shipped South. The Of everything that bears the shape of whisky-skin colored men of African descent in the Cabinet, gated spiffication. I yield to no livin critter, whe State Arsenals are empty. The rife and pistot gin-and-sugar, brandy-sour, peach-and-honey with whom he had official business to transact, ther that critter ar found mid the tarnal snows of manufactories have all been emptied by the Southirrepressible cock-tail, rum-and-gum, and lus- Indeed, with the exceptions that the Emperor and the equatorial phalanx, or brillin neath the tepsiroyal family are of pure white blood, and that corial visisitoods of torrid empyreans, in admira. Ability to supply. The government has ordered there is a considerable white population in the tion of the American Eagle! But sir, I would see all the U. S. troops to the Pacific Coast, out of country, there is little or no practical difference, that flag cut up for poultice bandages-I would the way; and all the available force of the Navy so far as the elevation and power of the colored see that eagle plucked barer than bare-rock, and has been sent to distant stations, where orders of race is concerned, between Brazil and any pure his meat used for wolf-bait afore I'll see the rights recall cannot reach them under a month's time. of this suvrin taoun invaded or upsot. Gentle. All these facts demonstrate that while the South > febreless. companies is smaller than it was. The number of her secoders panic-stricken to their bomes, and if of the meetin, the Tipsycorial Glee Club sang the fore, is comparatively trilling. Hence our chief reliance must be on the arms in the hands of individuals; and no republican should feel himself secure without one;

We are not alarmists; but it would be criminal wooing, &c." with great effect. Descon Pender- to hide from the people the fact that they are in grass was axed to pray, but he would'nt, so we danger. They have been betrayed by their govpassed the balance of the time in stompin, imita- ernment into the hands of their enemies. There is a well settled purpose on the part of the South-City and prevent the inauguration of Lincoln. "In the name of the State-forevermore, amen. When that conspiracy develops itself, as it will, SS. Whereas the people of Hornby, being of in what position will the North be to resist or prevent it? Can she do it in her present unarmed condition? She has numbers; but she has not the weapons, and she will be false to herself if she does not supply the lack at once.

When, however, we advise the people to arm, we do not advise them to put themselves in an at-3d. Resolved, That onless the said Abraham titude of resistance or hostility to the government, colo, when the time for its inauguration comes,

A CLEVELAND LADY DRIVEN FROM NEW

Miss Lucelie Sexton, a graduate of the Homeeopathic College in this city, and a very estimable ward at the hands of an incensed com-mu- But this time the Union is too much for me. While 6th. Resolved: That the "Stares an Stripes" lady, well known to our citizens and esteemed by I'm runnin arter one piece, two or three more gets be an hereby is abolished, an that a new flag be all who knew her, arrived in Cleveland last Monadrift, an the divil in a gale of wind hes an easy obtained, emblazened with the taoun arms - a day evening from New Orleans, having been drivwood-chuck rampant, with the motter "I bites," en from the city and State. Miss Sexton was, for a time, connected with Mrs. H. F. M. Brown in all right. We expected of course, that Bruckin- 7th. Resolved: That this ere goen acut of a the Agitator, published in this city, but went to bridge an Duglis was elected, and that the sta- suvrin loominary are a sollum thing, an hacuever New Orleans several years ago to practice medipronounced "a damusble stricle of some merit."
Miss Sexton appealed to the police for protection, that we will care acur letters to some other mar-ket, an that we repudiate all demands which Portry, but says she never intruded her opinions upon any one at the South.

So the detestable Juggernaut of slavery rolls on, orushing out all life and liberty where